Accounting & CPA

CFOColorado – Colorado

Our system allows our accountants to spend more time with each small business client, a market all but ignored by the accounting profession. Small business clients typically cannot afford to hire a Certified Public Accountant or personal financial planner to help them gain control of their business or personal finances. As a result, they are left with what we think are unacceptable choices: to pay exorbitant fees for a professional, settle for someone not properly qualified, such as a part-time bookkeeper, or complete the work themselves. CFOColorado is the first accounting organization to specifically address the needs of businesses with revenues of less than $1 million a year.

Our unique CFOColorado System is not only more effective for small businesses, but also more efficient and we pass those savings on to you. Our accountants can provide the accounting and tax services your business needs for as little as $80* a month while also providing the business consultation services your business needs to succeed.

National Franchise Institute – Nationwide

Franchising is one of the most successful business expansion models in the history of the world because IT WORKS!
At the National Franchise Institute, we have expertise in every facet of franchise and business growth:

GROWTH STRATEGIES: Should I Franchise My Business?

Franchising is a great option for a lot of entrepreneurs — but not for every entrepreneur and not necessarily for every concept. Before you invest your life savings, find out the 'franchise-ability' of your business, how long it will take, how much it will cost, and how big you need to grow before franchising really starts to make sense for your brand.

Franchise Development & Franchise Sales

Entrepreneurs who have made the decision to franchise a concept they have created often find themselves spending thousands of upfront dollars to become franchisors, only to find that there are a few 'right' ways to do it and a lot of wrong ways! With a pay-as-you-grow approach, we help entrepreneurs spend smart money at the right time to achieve short-term success and then use franchise fees and collected royalties to reinvest in value-added tools and resources that help them continue to grow successfully. Curious about owning your own franchise, we've got those bases covered for you as well!

Brick & Mortar Franchise Success: Know The Costs or Pay The Price!

If you are building your first (or your next) brick and mortar location, the Brick & Mortar Franchise Success program should be on your MUST DO list before you sign a lease! No one sets out to lose money when building new locations, yet all too often that is exactly what happens because people simply don't know what they don't know. During in-person education events held in Denver, Colorado, we cover every step of the development process, so you know how to avoid costly mistakes and enjoy the success of operating a winning location.

New Colonies Media - is a website for all things American. Our goals are to help small- and medium-sized business and individual members grow and prosper in a challenging economy. We are creating "colonies" of like-minded people and businesses that want to buy American goods, support small businesses within our communities, and keep and create jobs at home. All of our business companies, affectionately called Colonists, have two things in common: they are American-owned and managed, and they use materials sourced primarily in the U.S. We believe that, for our country and our communities to recover from the economic downturn and thrive, we must rediscover what our forefathers knew – that we all need to pull together, share our resources and knowledge, and work as a team. To that end, New Colonies Media offers a number of benefits to its members, some of which are: a vast, continually growing network, access to people with skills that they might not otherwise have, discounted goods and services for their businesses, and valuable information shared on our online publication channels (blogs and e-newsletters).

PC Whisperer – Colorado

Our primary focus is on Microsoft Windows based computer systems but also support Apple, Linux, Unix, and most hardware repairs. Our ideal customers are individual users, home businesses, and small to medium businesses with up to 25 employees. Though we are certified by Microsoft to support hundreds of users, the level of service we wish to provide can easily diminish when supporting larger clients. We have found a small group of ignored computer users out there that are too small to have full time computer support staff but large enough to experience crippling computer issues or growth limiting environments. If you find yourself spending more time under your desk than sitting at it, please give us a call.

Education & Training

Elite-Blue

Professional Firearms Training (Colorado & Wyoming)

Forget fishing weekends, golf weekends and hunting weekends – join us at ELITE BLUE Professional Firearms Training for Alternative Adventure Weekends LIKE NO OTHER! On more than 600 acres of varied terrain, it dwarfs all but a handful of training sites nationwide. What could be better than training, shooting, bonfires, steak dinners and camaraderie?

TACTICAL WEEKEND (WY) – A weekend of fun and serious training! Instruction includes pistols, rifles, shotguns, long-range and scoped rifles, the police qual, SWAT qual, shooting in and around vehicles, and low-light shooting.

COMBAT CAMP (WY) – A unique weekend experience that blends serious firearms training with a fun, nostalgic trip back in time to re-live World War II. You will wear a uniform, live in a tent, eat at a chow hall, pick a Battle Buddy (or bring one with you), stalk thru a forest engaging targets, and experience the excitement of being a combat soldier.

CONCEALED CARRY (Greenwood Village, CO) – Interested in getting your CCW? Who better to learn about concealed carry and gun safety than Mike Miller, a Navy Veteran, retired police sergeant, 20-year law enforcement professional, and NRA-certified instructor who is also a practicing attorney? In addition to NRA-required curriculum, you will learn the law on the use of force, when you can and cannot use deadly force inside and outside of your home, and what to expect if you find yourself in a critical incident, both during the incident and afterward.

Wax Creek -

Is a brand marketing company- we believe in our heart and soul in a 'brand-first' approach to marketing. You MUST be crystal clear on what you stand for and who your customers are before you start spending money trying to reach them. Seems simple right? Your customers are not "anybody" or "everybody"- if you think they are, we need to talk!

We care deeply for our clients and their success which is why we handcraft marketing strategies and messaging that is right for your brand. We approach this by making sure your visual brand is more than just a logo, but something that is uniquely yours and evokes an emotion and connection with your customers. We ensure the words on your website, blog or social media are well-designed with your customers top of mind. We can help you build sales funnels and email campaigns that work because they are built to educate and nurture your target market. We can help you run social ads that convert, rank higher on Google, or plan your next golf tournament. It all depends on what is right for your company. We would be honored to accompany you on the exciting journey to discover your "marketing sweet spot" where your ideal customers FIND YOU! You know what customers we're talking about; the ones who come back to work with you again and again, the ones who leave amazing reviews and tell their friends about you, and who are excited to hear and engage with whatever sweet words roll off your proverbial tongue next. The customers you love working with. Your customers.

If you're ready to launch marketing solutions that work together, target your people, and tell your story, let's chat. Our approach is unique and effective, some even say magical. We can help you build the business you're dreaming of. Aren't sure what exactly that looks like? We can help you with that too. We turn standard projects around in 1-2 weeks, even the big ones. Come experience the fresh air here at Wax Creek- we'd love to show you how we're different!
